

Dark Vs Light Tic Tac Toe Game! Part One: Resin Game Pieces

I am building Dark Vs Light Tic Tac Toe Game! In this video, I create enough game pieces for both sides. I discover how much resin it takes (I am using up my yellowing resin for this) as well as realize that in order to mix those colors perfectly, each side needs to be made from the same pigment mix for consistency.

This is going to be part one, part two is in production.
